Versus

Respondents State of Madhya Pradesh & others

SB: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Satish K. Agnihotri, J

Shri Rajendra Tripathi, Advocate for the petitioner.
Shri Ajay Dwivedi, Panel lawyer for the respondents/State.

ORAL ORDER

(11th July, 2006)

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, who was working as Sister Tutors, filed this petition questioning entry of her name in the gradation list published on 23.5.1991.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents/State submits that the gradation list has been corrected subsequently in the gradation list published on 4.4.1995 (Annexure A/1).

3. It is stated on oath in the return filed on behalf of the respondents/State that the petitioner has been placed at serial No. 23 and it was proposed for promotion in the next coming DPC.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner is not in a position to state as to whether the name of the petitioner was considered or not.

5. In view of the said submission made by learned counsel for the respondents and the return filed by the respondents, nothing survives in the matter. In the event, if any grievance still survives in the placement of petitioner's name in the gradation list, the petitioner is at liberty to take appropriate steps.

6. For the reasons stated-above, the petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No order as to costs.
